

ENGLAND MAY ALTER BLACKLIST POLICY

Lord Robert Cecil Makes Statement in Discussing U. S. Legislation

MAY EXPECT REPLY SOON

British Minister of War Trade Declines to Enter Into Details of Contents of Reply

DEFENDS COMMERCIAL ACTS

LONDON, Sept. 8.—"It is not likely that Great Britain will change her blacklist policy at the request of the United States," said Lord Robert Cecil, minister of war trade, in discussing today the possible effect of recent American retaliatory legislation. To The Associated Press Lord Robert stated that a reply to the blacklist protest made by the United States may be expected soon.

Lord Robert, however, declined to enter into the details of the contents of the reply beyond the statement that the principle embodied in British legislation forbidding trading with an enemy country is unlikely to be surrendered in any measure. The minister of war trade professed himself to be puzzled by the provisions in the revenue bill passed by congress at Washington dealing with the prohibition of imports as such orders, he said, were adopted strictly in an effort to conserve tonnage and were applied accordingly.

In a general defense of British commercial acts Lord Robert said: "The ideas expressed by some American newspapers that Great Britain is adopting a deliberate policy with which to injure American trade is the purest moonshine since outside of our own dominions, our trade with the United States is the most important. Of course, natural trade rivalry exists, but no responsible statesman in this country would dream of proposing an insane measure designed to injure American commerce."

"Any impression that the blacklist of merely an entering wedge for a trade warfare after the war may be dismissed at once. I assure you the blacklist is purely a war measure and I cannot insist too strongly that the government is taking every precaution to guarantee its enforcement so as to cause as little hardship as possible to innocent traders."

"We believe our trade measures are proving efficacious, altho it is difficult to give any figures indicating the extent of the harm done to our enemies, but I might point out that the mark is still declining in value."

It was then pointed out to Lord Robert that the belief prevailed that consignments of firms trading with black listed firms might be refused shipment from American or other neutral ports thru the fear of not getting coal.

Lord Robert replied: "This fear is unfounded, as we have no desire to interfere nor does the law contemplate any interference with legitimate trade. We are taking precautions to prevent an unjustified extension of the 'blacklist'."

Questions in regard to the fate of a ship accepting a consignment from a blacklisted firm to any south American port, the minister of war trade said:

"I fear we have to insist that our nationals refuse to supply coal for such a purpose and I am afraid that a refusal of the United States to permit the clearance of a vessel refusing such a consignment would cause friction between the two countries."

Lord Robert expressed the opinion that not only the purpose of the blacklist but also the real design of the Paris economic conference was misunderstood in the United States saying in this connection:

"The real purpose of the Paris conference was to arrive at some plan by which to prevent any resumption or extension of the politico commercial system prevailing before the war in the first place and in the second to devise means for accomplishing both for ourselves and our allies the enormous task of reconstruction. We fully realize that such a plan must involve readjustment of existing treaties which with their favored nation clauses now stand in the way. However, it must be remembered that with the exception of this country, which has no tariff wall all countries have constantly evaded and violated the favored nation clause."

In conclusion Lord Roberts declared that the adoption of the plan

RECOMMEND TEN CENT LOAF OF BREAD BE STANDARDIZED

Executive Committee of National Association of Master Bakers Takes Action.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—Recommendations to all bakers of the United States that the five cent loaf of bread be abandoned and the ten cent loaf standardized were made after considerable discussion at the closing session of the executive committee of the National Association of Master Bakers today. They urged that the recommendations be put into effect immediately. Economic waste incident to the manufacture of the five cent loaf was emphasized as a reason for its discontinuance. Saving in manufacture, improvement in quality and standardization are urged in favor of the ten cent loaf. It is also recommended that where local conditions make it necessary the smaller loaf may be maintained with a price consistent with the cost of manufacture.

The bakers cited the following percentages of increase in the cost of ingredients in the cost of manufacture of bread within the last two years:

FIFTY MEXICANS RAID U. S. ENGINEER CAMP

ESCAPE WITH MULE FROM ISOLATED PORTION OF CAMP AT OJO FEDERICO

Military Authorities Believe Incursion is Indirectly Responsible for Rumor of Clash Between Americans and Band of Villa Followers in Chihuahua.

El Paso, Texas, Sept. 8.—Thirty Mexicans supposed to be Villa followers made a raid on the engineer camp of the American punitive expedition and escaped with a mule according to the members of the expeditionary force arriving here today from Mexico by way of Columbus, N. M.

This incursion which took place last Wednesday on an isolated portion of the camp at Ojo Federico is believed by the military authorities here to have been indirectly responsible for today's rumor of the clash between the Fifth Cavalry and Sixteenth Infantry of regulars and a band of Villa followers south of El Valle, Chihuahua. Otherwise the story of that fight must be called a hoax, the officers say.

Information received at the military headquarters here confirms the presence of Villa in the Santa Clara canyon.

Villa on his northward march, told the natives that he intended to eat dinner on the Mexican independence day, Sept. 16th, but he later said he would take part in the celebration at Chihuahua City on the evening of the 15th, which is carnival night in Mexico.

Such at least is the story brought here today out of Mexico by a man well acquainted with the people.

He also said he talked to a Mexican who recently interviewed Villa in an effort to secure the release of some commandeered mules. The Mexican said the bandit chief looked very thin and yellow and still used crutches when walking, altho able to ride a horse.

Travelers tell of Chihuahua City rumors that General Jose Cavazos who headed the expedition to hunt for Villa's body when the bandit was supposed to be dead, was killed by his own men, who then deserted to the bandits.

Native accounts agree that Villa, on his northern march had only a few rounds of cartridges for each man. Evidence shows, however, that caches of ammunition have been recovered by the bandits.

Another Mexican report apparently reliable has it that Carranza has withdrawn from the presidential race in favor of Obregon.

This is taken as a step toward conciliating the factions hostile to the constitutional government.

PROHIBITION CANDIDATE ATTACKS WILSON AND HUGHES

MENDOTA, Ills., Sept. 8.—"Both President Wilson and Charles Hughes conceal their thoughts in evasion and are content to tickle the ears of their hearers with worthless platitudes and harmless generalities," according to J. Frank Hanly, prohibition candidate for president, who spoke here today on his coast to coast tour which started today.

Hanly particularly criticised both Wilson and Hughes for professing great interest in the women and children of the nation and remaining silent on the "liquor curse."

The attack brought cheers from the crowd at Aurora, where he made the first address of thirteen set for Illinois and Iowa cities.

Ira Landrith, candidate for vice-president predicted that at the end of the campaign the prohibition party would be lifted out of the realm of jest. John H. Golden, prohibition candidate for Governor of Illinois also spoke.

SESSION CLOSES WITHOUT A HITCH

General Exodus of Members for Home Follows Adjournment

CLOSING HOURS QUIET

Leaders Look to Railroad Legislation as Dominating Feature of the Winter Session

TO CONSIDER CONSERVATION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Adjournment of the first session of the sixty-fourth congress at 10 o'clock this morning, without a hitch in the plans of senate and house leaders was quickly followed by a general exodus of members hastening for home for rest before the national political campaign. While the closing saw the administration legislative program mainly completed, some things wait to be continued at the winter session notably the remainder of the president's program for railroad legislation which was partially enacted to prevent the threatened strike.

In a formal statement President Wilson, speaking of the work of congress gave notice that the remainder of the railroad program would be pressed at the new session. The immigration bill, the corrupt practices bill and the bill to permit combinations of American exporters to meet foreign competition abroad went over. The closing hours of congress were remarkably quiet. Only the presence of the president in his rear room near the senate chamber served to attract interest to what otherwise would have been an uneventful ending of an eventful congress. In formal conferences of a few administration senators and congressmen turned after adjournment, from thoughts of what had been achieved to contemplation of the future. No matter what happens in the November election the Democratic congress has three months of work ahead and an ambitious program to complete. There was disappointment but no bitterness over the failure of some measures during the long session and the Democrats are proud of their legislative record with its $161,000,000, national defense appropriations, the child labor law, the prevention of the nationwide railroad strike, establishment of a government shipping board to rehabilitate the American merchant marine, creation of a tariff commission and many other legislative enactments of more than usual importance.

For the winter session the Democratic leaders look to the railroad legislation as the dominating feature. Before the strike emergency arose congress aroused to the necessity for transportation legislation had created a joint sub-committee of the senate and house, headed by Senator Newlands, to undertake a study of all transportation problems including the advisability of government ownership of public utilities, and to recommend legislation at the next session. The committee already has set November 20th for the beginning of hearings on a wide range of subjects.

It has before it also, the suggestions made by President Wilson which congress did not accept in its haste to assure prevention of the railroad strike. Railroad presidents and managers, labor leaders, shipper investors and students of government all will be summoned to cooperate with the investigating committee in its work which is expected to result in the submission of important constructive legislation affecting transportation and industrial problems of the country.

In addition to the railroad situation which congress will consider will be conservation of the natural resources. Waterpower bills which failed at this session will be revived. So will measures for the conservation of mineral resources and for control of destructive flood waters. First on the December program however, will be the immigration bill with its literacy test, passed by the house but not by the senate at this session and the corrupt practices bill to reform election methods, which Senator Owen sought vainly to get on the statute books before adjournment.

The Republicans pointing to the appropriations and authorizations for the future amounting close to two billions, closed their part of the session reiterating charges of extravagance and waste.

SEE EXTENSION OF MAIL CENSORSHIP

U. S. WILL TAKE MOST SERIOUS VIEW OF LLOYD GEORGE'S STATEMENT

Believe England Intends to Use Mail Censorship for Providing Data for Great Britain's Fight for Commercial Supremacy.

Washington, Sept. 8.—Extension of the British mail censorship from its original purpose of destroying all trade to or from Germany to the field of providing data for Great Britain's fight for commercial supremacy is seen here in admissions made by David Lloyd George, the war secretary before parliament just received in full in this country. Lloyd George said:

"It is the practice to communicate to other departments concerned any information on matters of public interest which may be obtained thru the censorship for such use to be made of it as the particular department may consider advisable. * * * * The government is perfectly within its rights in using any information which comes to it in these communications for any public and national purpose."

This statement, created a stir in the house of commons. It apparently had been censored out of cable dispatches to the United States.

Secretary Lansing said it had been called to the attention of state department officials, but declined to make any comment at this time.

It is understood however, that the department will take a most serious view of Lloyd George's interpretation of the British war office's power, and will protest more vigorously than ever against interference with neutral mails on the high seas. So far there has been no formal charge that improper use was being made of information gleaned from opened neutral correspondence. Officials here already were vexed at England's long delay in answering the American censorship note of May 26th, and it is probable that any inquiry into the new development will express that feeling. A brief preliminary note was received July 20th, but it was inconclusive.

It is pointed out that the war minister's attitude appears to be a flat contradiction to that expressed by Lord Robert Cecil, minister of trade and reiterated emphatically in his statement August 25th, saying Lord Robert asserted such information is never used for the purpose of substituting allied trade for neutral.

PRIMARY ELECTION IN WASHINGTON STRENUOUS

Contest for Senatorial Nomination Overshadows Others in Interest.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 8.—The primary election campaign in Washington, which has only two more days to run, has been one of the most strenuous in years, and it is almost impossible to forecast the results.

The most interesting contest is that for the Republican nomination for United States senator, in which Miles Poindexter, as a candidate for a second term, is opposed by William E. Humphrey, who is serving his sixth term in the national house of representatives. There are other aspirants for the Republican senatorial nomination, but it is generally conceded that the real contest is between Poindexter and Humphrey. Dr. C. E. Bryan appears to have the lead in the race for the Democratic nomination for senator.

Six contestants are entered in the free-for-all race for the Republican nomination for governor. Governor Ernest Lister, whose term will expire next January, expects to be re-nominated as head of the Democratic state ticket, altho he is not without opposition. Contests are on in virtually all of the congressional districts.

One of the most interesting features of the campaign is the candidacies of women for several of the highest offices to be filled at the November election. Mrs. John B. Allen of Seattle, widow of the first United States senator from Washington aspires to the Republican nomination for the seat once held by her husband. Mrs. Frances Axtell of Bellingham is seeking the Progressive nomination for Congress in the Second district. Woman candidates are also in the field for the nomination as superintendent of public instruction.

War News Summarized

Roumania which entered the European war less than two weeks ago now is the scene of a great battle between Russo-Roumanian forces and armies of the Central Powers. The southern part of Dobrudja or eastern Roumania has become a fighting ground and the opposing armies are engaged from the Black Sea to the Danube along a front of about seventy miles.

Bulgarian and Turkish troops advancing along the Black Sea, have occupied Balcik and two other seaports, Sofia reports and the fortress of Dobrich, or Bazardjik, fifty miles southeast of Bucharest has been taken by a combined Bulgarian-German force. The armies of the Central Powers have not yet crossed the Danube all reports agree.

The Roumanians continue their offensive in eastern Transylvania and also have occupied the important town of Orsova, on the Danube, above the Iron Gate. Advancing from Csik Szereda, in Transylvania north of Kronstadt, the Roumanians are driving westward and Vienna admits the withdrawal of Austrian forces before attacks against Hart-ega.

The Russians on the northern end of their line near Riga have commenced a new undertaking and have crossed the Dvina north of Dvinsk. Repeated efforts by the Germans to dislodge them, Petrograd declares, have been unsuccessful. In Eastern Galicia the Austro-Germans are fighting desperately to hold back the Russians advancing on Halicz, south-east of Lemberg. Petrograd says the Austro-German forces have fallen back to the western bank of the Gnita Lipa, while Vienna asserts that the troops of the central powers are holding their own in the heavy fighting that is going on. Russian attacks against German positions on the Zlota-Lipa southeast of Brzezany failed with heavy losses, Berlin reports.

On the Somme front in France the violent bombardment continues along the entire line. The only infantry engagements have taken place south of the river. The French report a further advance for their troops in the village of Vermandovillers. In the Berny-en-Senterre and Chaulnes sector, where the fighting was particularly vicious both the Germans and the French claim success for their armies in the repulse of attacks.

There has been no infantry action on the front in Greek Macedonia but the artillery duels have continued along the Struma and in the region of Lake Dolran.

FILE BILL TO FORCLOSE CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC RAILROAD

Chicago, Sept. 8.—A bill to foreclose on the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railway was filed in the United States District court by attorneys for the "Peabody Committee" holders of 20 per cent of $111,000,000 of first and refunding gold mortgage bonds of the road.

The Peabody committee consists of Charles A. Peabody, Allen F. Forbes, William A. Day, Alexander J. Hemphill, Albert W. Harris, Percy A. Rockefeller and John H. McClement. The bill was filed by L. C. Krauthoff, solicitor for the committee as a result of the order of Judge Ferdinand A. Geiger, entered August 15th, 1916, giving the committee the right to file the bill.

The railroad has been in federal receivership for several years. Judge Jacob M. Dickinson, former secretary of war is receiver.

No date for the argument on the bill has been set. It will be strenuously opposed, it is understood by the holders of other securities who contend that the railroads can be re-organized more fairly without foreclosure.

PREDICTS TRIUMPH FOR SUFFRAGE CAUSE

Wilson Addresses National American Woman Suffrage Association

IS WARMLY APPLAUDED

Auditors Cheer When President Declares, "I Have Come Here to Fight With You"

DOES NOT SPEAK ON METHOD

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 8.—Triumph for the woman suffrage cause in "a little while" was predicted by President Wilson here tonight in a speech before the annual convention of the National American Woman Suffrage association.

"I have come to fight with you," the president declared. Immediately the four thousand women present stood and cheered. A few minutes later Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, honorary president of the association with Mr. Wilson still present, declared:

"We have waited long enough to get the vote. We want it now. I want it to come during your administration."

Again the great audience of women stood and cheered, waving handkerchiefs.

The president's pledge of support to the suffrage question caused Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the organization to say in a speech soon after he closed.

"You touched our hearts and won our fealty when you said you had come here to fight with us."

The president did not speak on the method by which he would bring about woman suffrage but said "we shall not quarrel in the long run as to the method of it."

The women in their speeches also failed to mention the question of method.

The president was warmly applauded before, during and after his speech. With Mrs. Wilson he sat during several addresses. Fears expressed before the meeting that he might be "heckled" did not materialize. At the conclusion of his address Mrs. Catt thanked him for speaking.

Declaring some times he became a little "impatient" over discussions about the channels thru which votes for women are to come, the president caused the delegates to applaud by saying:

"I have felt the wholesome contagion of the occasion."

Mr. Wilson aroused the greatest enthusiasm when he said whenever he had come to Atlantic City previously he had come to fight against somebody, but that on his present trip, he had "come to fight with somebody." The women in the boxes, the orchestra and the balcony stood and cheered.

The meeting came to an end with the President and Mrs. Wilson standing between suffrage leaders joining in singing patriotic songs.

In his address the president did not mention his previously expressed belief that suffrage would come thru action by the states.

At the time the United States was formed, Mr. Wilson said, only a lawyer knew enough to run the nation but since the civil war the country has been faced more and more by social questions and women have more and more taken an interest in public affairs.

"The whole nature of our political questions has already been altered," he said.

Speaking of the future of the movement, Mr. Wilson declared that the tide was rising and would come to its flood.

The president talked for fifteen minutes, just the time occupied by the other speakers. At the conclusion of his address he went to his hotel. Tomorrow morning he will go to Long Branch, N. J., by motor to occupy his summer home.

Miss Charlotte Sweeney was a visitor in Springfield.

The single taxers are in politics more than ever this fall. A full ticket has been put in the field in Philadelphia, and an active campaign, it is announced, is to be waged in all of the states. The Joseph Fels fund is to be replaced by an "International Fels fund commission," by vote of the single taxers at their annual conference at Niagara Falls, N. Y. They have not yet got as far as naming a presidential candidate.

The annual wastage of marketing farm products is of a billion dollar magnitude, according to the general committee of the national conference on marketing and farm credits, which is to be held at Chicago December 4 to 9. A nationwide economy campaign is to be undertaken and a particular point of attack will be the need of better organization of farmers in local communities. The enforced economies in the fighting nations of Europe doubtless will have useful instruction for the world which will become known when the war is over.

Farmers are Warned

So loudly and extravagantly has the Wilson administration praised the Rural Credits bill that already smooth promoters are utilizing it in schemes designed to fleece the farmers. The farmers have been told so much about the benefits to them of the Rural Credits system that sharpers regard them as easy marks for the exploitation of stock in rural banks. These promoters are organizing farm banks and selling the stock to farmers at $200 for a $100 share. The purchaser is told that the excess over par "less the cost of organization" will go to form a surplus for the new bank, but of course the phrase quoted forms the loophole by which the smooth promoters can charge as exorbitantly for their services in organizing the bank as they please and if there is nothing left to constitute a surplus the stockholders will have no come back. It is a very smooth scheme and is made feasible by the extravagant claims made for the Rural Credits bill by all Democratic politicians from the president down.

Recruiting a Failure

The Hay army bill is proving, as is indicated by the official figures, a failure. For five months the military authorities have been making extraordinary efforts to recruit the 20,000 "emergency" soldiers authorized by that measure. These efforts have resulted in recruiting 538 men. The regular army today is actually 1,756 men weaker than the authorized strength of a year ago. In other words, there has been absolutely no gain whatever from the Hay "Emergency Resolution." The provision that postmasters should act as recruiting agents and receive a bonus of $5 for every man recruited has been in operation ten days and has not produced a single recruit. Under the Hay bill the authorized strength of the army will increase annually for five years, but that is merely on paper. Actually, as has been said, the army is not recruited up to the point authorized before the "Emergency Resolution" was passed. The administration says this is all due to the war prosperity, but army officers say it is because Rep. Hay and the administration have preferred to have their own way rather than take the advice of military experts in framing the recruiting provisions.

Boost Tax Amendment

If endorsement from party leaders and candidates for office give influence, the pending tax amendment to the state constitution should receive favorable consideration at the general election Nov. 7. Morton D. Hall, Frank O. Lowden, Frank L. Smith, Republican candidates for governor; William B. Brinton and Edward F. Dunne, Democratic candidates for governor, and Seymour Steadman, Socialist candidate for governor, have all made statements urging the adoption of the amendment as a first step toward equitable and enforceable personal property tax laws.

One of the candidates summed the question up in the following language: "Our present system of taxation is almost uniformly condemned. The scheme proposed has met with gratifying success. It is approved wherever adopted. Illinois should lose no time in getting in line with the foremost thought on the subject of revenue reform. With the unification for our administrative agencies, the adoption of an effective budget system, the organization of a finance department, the adoption of the revenue amendment, and the revision of our revenue laws, the state will have made a tremendous advance in revenue reform."

THE MAN FROM THE COUNTRY

The Next Best Thing

With less than half the Republican vote that Sangamon has, and two candidates to divide that vote, Morgan's chances to secure a member of the house of representatives is very slim indeed.

The next best thing is to elect "THE MAN FROM THE COUNTRY," Mr. I. S. Dunn, of Livenon, formerly of Morgan county. He is heartily in favor of an amendment to the constitution dividing senatorial districts into three distinct representative districts;
he is for a state-wide vote on the liquor question; for fair labor laws; and if elected will faithfully represent the people of Morgan county as well as those of Sangamon.

He's an Odd Fellow, a Woodman and a Presbyterian.

TWO METHODIST MINISTERS ARE CITED FOR CONFERENCE TRIAL

Refused to Serve Church to Which They Were Assigned—Friday a Busy Day—Gossip About Appointments.

(By C. R. Morrison.)

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 8.—The conference appreciated very highly the courtesy of an informal reception given by Gov. Dunne and wife—to the membership, wives of the same and hosts and hostesses Thursday evening. The Governor and wife, stood at the head of the reception line and as each visitor passed, and had his name announced by the major domo, greeted the same kindly and passed him on to another room where Mrs. Yates introduced him to Miss Dunne, who greeted him cordially and bade him welcome. At large tables in each room dispensers of iced fruits and wafers gave a spirit of hospitality to the occasion, while an orchestra dispensed delightful music. Many of the ministers had never visited the Executive Mansion and enjoyed the function very highly.

Business Progresses.

The rapid dispatch of business in the conference session is freely commented on and appreciated by its members. Already it is one day ahead. The class for admission was called forward and addressed by Bishop Wilson and all questions having been answered satisfactorily, the affirmative vote was taken and six new members were admitted. These are as follows: Alfred E. Cole, Plymouth, Ill.; Harold W. Hartman, Bloomington; Ira S. Haverfield, Paris; Oscar F. Jones, Bondville; Harwood L. Ellis, from M. E. church South; Thomas M. Carter, an Evanston Student.

Cited to Trial.

Edward L. Darley, who was assigned to Oconee at the last conference, but who refused to go, was cited to trial, nine members having been selected to try the case. Dr.
John M. Kuntler appointed chairman of the committee by Bishop Wilson.
J. J. Dugan of Springfield was asked to take care of the case for Mr.
Darley, and R. W. Ennis to be the attorney for the church. The case of Francis M. Gibson, of a similar nature was also referred to this same committee.

Visiting Brethren.

John R. Race, chairman of the Book Concern Corporation, made a fine address to the conference on that institution. The six million dollar plant, with its annual dividends to the retired ministry, besides the ever enlarging and improving of the plant to meet the needs of the business and the church. After his most brilliant address, it was whispered about that is Dr. Race there was "Bishop Timber," and the church may hear from him later on. He is now occupying the place made vacant by the resignation and subsequent death of John A. Patien of Chattanooga, Tenn., of the Wine of Cardui fame.

Big Things of Friday.

At 5:00 o'clock, the Ninth Annual Educational Banquet was held at the Christian church, corner of Sixth and Cook streets. Hon. Francis G.
Blair, L. L. D., Superintendent of Public Instruction was toastmaster.

Bishop Wilson spoke on "Builders of Colleges, our Conference Claimants."

Dr. Charles E. Guthrie of New York spoke on "Youth and Life Services."

G. Franklin Ream representing the Board of Education, of New York City, spoke on "Methodism's Educational Task."

Bishop Thomas Nicholson took for his theme, "Looking Forward."

The Chaddock School for Boys made quite a hit with their duet and quartette singing, Deaconess Bertha Headles at the piano. Of course the "Wesleyan Boys" made several hits and were quite in evidence in college songs and yells. The banquet was of high order of merit, as the Ladies of the Christian church of Springfield are known as skilled entertainers.

Joint Meeting.

Instead of an entertainment, or lecture to help defray the expenses of the conference, the Springfield committee arranged to have the annual joint session of ministers and laymen as the center of attraction, with an admission fee, to take its place. Bishop Wilson presided. The Temple Boys choir of First M. E.
Church under the direction of Prof.
D. Spencer Wiley, furnished the music. Mr. J. W. Breckon of Palmyra, made the opening prayer. State Superintendent Blair delivered the first address on "Methodism as seen thru the eyes of Our General Conference."

Bishop Nicholson spoke on "Our Task and Triumph."

Gossip.

Rev. W. R. Leslie of Pittsfield, a young and brilliant preacher, who is filling out a second year in Pike county's capital, has had flattering offers to serve the churches of both Paris and Vermont street, Quincy.
He is not laying any plans, other than to abide by the decision of the Bishop.

The First Church Decatur is asking for Dr. Schuett of Champaign to become its pastor. Rumor suggests that Dr. Antrim may go to Bloomington First Church, and Dr.
Havighorst will go to Champaign.
So far but little has been done in the appointments of the larger classes. Many laymen are in attendance upon the annual Lay conference, which holds its session two blocks south of the Methodist church.

Mrs. C. L. DePew and Miss Marian DePew are spending several days in Springfield, guests of Miss Aileen Sharp.

To Morgan County Voters

The campaign just closing has been fair in most of its details, excepting possibly one point, which I feel should be answered plainly.

The charge has been insidiously circulated that I have not been discharging certain financial obligations.

Because of a heavy fire loss suffered a few years ago, and this thru no fault of mine, I became quite heavily involved and was in debt when elected to this office.

But the facts are that I was paying then, as well as since serving as Circuit Clerk, as fast as conditions would permit, and have discharged many of these obligations. Some of them remain unsettled. However, within a reasonable time I hope to have them all fully discharged, and might add that these obligations are amply protected by insurance in the event of death. My personal expenses are down to the minimum, all forms of extravagance being carefully avoided, and my ambition is to pay all.

I would not at this, or any other time, have intimated these troubles of mine, either to the public or to my personal friends, but for the fact that this condition has been made use of.

Silence is golden, it is said, therefore I have not burdened my friends with my troubles, but feel that it is but fair to have these facts briefly outlined, that you may form your own conclusions, and I respectfully ask that you be not misled by the methods indicated, which are only for the purpose of defeating me for the nomination.

Respectfully,

EUGENE D. PYATT.

HER DEATH NEAR
So Everyone Thought, But Is Now
Well And Stronger Than Ever.

Newton, Mo.—"I can certainly speak a good word for Cardui, the woman's tonic," says Mrs. Jay Rhoades, of this town. "I suffered for 12 years with my right side, and the last three years, I would have a bad spell with it about every three months.
I would get so bad off, every one would think I could not live.
The first of July, I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I haven't had a bad spell since soon after I began taking it.
Before taking Cardui, I was so irregular, and, at times, I could hardly stand on my feet. Now, I can clean house, and do any kind of work without its hurting me in the least.
Cardui will surely do for other women, what it did for me. I am telling all my neighbors about it."
Cardui is a mild and effe 've tonic for women, that has been found, by actual use, during more than 50 years, to relieve the ailments to which all women are peculiarly liable.
Cardui has helped thousands.
Why not you? Try it.

Review of First Session of Sixty-Fourth Congress

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—The first session of the Sixty-fourth Congress which adjourned today was concerned chiefly with national defense.

When the gavel fell Congress had directed reorganization and reequipping of the Army and Navy for defense of the country at the unprecedented cost of $655,000,000 with appropriations that will increase the total in three years to nearly $800,000,000. With all other expenditures, appropriations were brought to the grand total of $1,637,583,682, the greatest aggregate in the country's history and exceeding that for the last fiscal year by more than half a billion dollars.

Expenditures, necessitated by preparedness and the calling into action of military forces to meet the Mexican emergency demanded revenue legislation in the closing days of the session. Congress responded by doubling the normal tax on incomes, creating an inheritance tax, munitions tax and miscellaneous excise taxes to raise $205,000,000 and by directing sale of $130,000,000 Panama Canal bonds.

Congress established a Tariff Commission; a Government Shipping Board to rehabilitate the American merchant marine; a workmen's Compensation Commission to administer a new uniform compensation law; a Farm Loan banking system; a Child Labor law; enlarged the system of self-government in the Philippines and enacted many other important laws which had been contemplated by the administration.

The session was disturbed through frequently recurring threats of foreign complications from the European war and imminence at one time of a diplomatic break with Germany; interference with American mails and commerce, invasion of American soil and killing of Americans by Mexican bandits and danger of actual war with Mexico.

The crisis in congress over the international situation followed Germany's naval order to sink armed belligerent merchant ships without warning. Introduction of resolutions warning Americans to keep off armed merchantmen caused President Wilson to halt diplomatic negotiations and go to the capitol to demand a "show down."

The result was tabling of the Gore resolution in the senate by a vote of 48 to 14 on March 3rd, and of the McMeure resolution in the house by a vote of 276 to 142 on March 7th. Immediately afterward the president sent to Germany and read to congress, a note threatening to sever diplomatic relations unless the Germans immediately effected a modification of its methods of submarine warfare.

Later in the session trouble arose in the Senate over the nomination of Louis D. Brandeis, of Boston, to succeed the late Justice Lamar as a member of the Supreme Court. Weeks of investigation and deliberation by the Judiciary committee ended in confirmation of Mr. Brandeis by a large majority.

In the week before adjournment congress was occupied with legislation which prevented a threatened nationwide railroad strike. President Wilson, after futile negotiations with officials of the railroads and railroad brotherhoods, submitted the controversy to congress, recommending legislation to avert the strike and to prevent such emergencies from arising in the future.

After a week of consideration during which the president visited the capitol daily conferring with administration leaders, a bill was passed to establish an eight-hour day as a basis for pay of railroad workers, the present rate of pay for ten hours work not to be reduced and the men to receive pro-rata pay for work in excess of eight hours, pending an investigation by a special commission into the effect of the 8-hour day on railroad revenues.

Most important legislative enactments of the session, exclusive of laws for national defense, included the following:

Government Ship Law: Appropriating $50,000,000 to operate ships in foreign and coastwise trade when unable to lease them to individuals or private corporations.

Child Labor Law: Denying interstate commerce to products of mines and quarries employing children under 16 years of age and factories, mills, canneries and other establishments employing children under 14 years.

Rural Credits Law: Establishing a Farm Loan Board in control of a system of Farm Loan Mortgage Banks.

Workmen's Compensation Law: Providing uniform sick and accident benefits for employees of the Federal Government, and benefits to dependents in case of death.

Emergency Revenue Law: Providing for doubling the normal income tax on the lowest class; making an additional surtax ranging from one per cent on that portion of incomes exceeding $20,000 to 13 per cent on amount of incomes in excess of $2,000,000; levying a graduated tax of one to ten percent on inheritances ranging from $50,000 to $5,000,000; a ten per cent net profit tax on manufacturers of munitions, five percent profit tax on manufacturers of materials entering into munitions; a license tax on actually invested capital stock of corporations capitalized at more than $99,000; wine, beer and liquor excise taxes and miscellaneous tax laws.

Good Roads Law: Providing for co-operative Federal aid to the States for construction of highways, and appropriating $75,000,000 to be spent in five years.

Postal Savings Law: Amendment increasing the amount which individuals may deposit from $500 to $1,000 with interest and an additional $1,000 without interest.

Federal Reserve: Amendments, including amendment to the Clayton anti-trust law permitting officers and directors of member banks to become officers and directors of not more than two other non-competing banks; amendments permitting national banks to establish foreign branches, liberalizing regulations for discounting commercial paper and permitting members banks in towns of 5,000 or less population to act as agents for insurance companies.

Railroad Legislation: Creation of a Joint sub-committee of Senate and House Interstate Commerce committees to investigate necessity for further legislation for railroads and the Interstate Commerce Commission, question of government ownership of public utilities and the comparative worth of government ownership as against government regulation.

Tariff: Creation of a non-partisan Tariff Commission of five members to investigate and advise Congress on tariff revision; repeal of the free sugar provision of existing tariff law; amendments increasing duties on dyestuffs to encourage manufacture of dyestuffs in the United States; enactment of an anti-dumping provision to prevent dumping of foreign made goods at less than foreign market prices; authorization for the President to retaliate against foreign nations prohibiting importation of goods from the United States by laying an embargo against imports from offending nations.

Cotton Futures Act: Providing a prohibitive tax on cotton sold for future delivery in fictitious or wash sales.

Philippines: Law to provide for a more autonomous government of the islands, enlarging self government, reorganizing election laws, establishing an elective Senate and promising independence whenever, in the judgment of the United States the Philippine people demonstrate capability for it.

Railroad Eight Hour Day Law: Establishing eight hours as the standard for reckoning the compensation of railroad employees operating trains in interstate commerce after Jan. 1, 1917, and providing for a commission of three to investigate the effects of the eight-hour standard, present wages not to be reduced during the investigation, nor for thirty days thereafter, and work in excess of 8 hours to be paid for at a pro-rata rate.

Appropriations for all purposes were:

Diplomatic and
Consular	5,355,096
District of Columbia ..	12,841,907

In addition to the total there were authorizations for expenditures in future years including naval, good roads, tariff commission and other expenditures to bring the total to approximately two billion dollars but these amounts do not properly apply to the appropriations for the fiscal year.

In addition Congress enacted an unusually large amount of miscellaneous legislation, including reorganization of the Patent Office; provision for trial of space system in place of weight system for payment for railroad mail service and leaving to the Interstate Commerce Commission determination of the method and rate of pay; Creation of a National Park Bureau in the Department of the Interior; establishing warehouse regulations for cotton and grains and providing a new grain grading law; extension for a year of the Government war risk insurance bureau; uniform law making bills of lading negotiable.

Proposed legislation which failed of enactment and has gone over until next winter includes the Immigration bill; the corrupt practices act to limit campaign expenditures for election of the President, vice president and members of Congress; a vocational education bill passed by the Senate; Conservation legislation including the Public lands water power bill, the Shields navigable streams water power bill which failed in conference, the oil leasing bill including relief for California oil men; a flood control bill which passed the House; and a bill to establish citizenship for natives of Porto Rico.

Three treaties were ratified by the Senate. The most important was the long pending Nicaraguan convention providing for the acquisition of a canal route and naval station rights in the Bay of Fonseca for $3,000,000. Another was the treaty with the Republic of Haiti providing for an American financial protectorate. The much disputed pending treaty with Colombia after several years of consideration was favorably reported from the Foreign Relations Committee with an amendment reducing from $25,000,000 to $15,000,000 the

The case of Oliver A. Hamm charged with assault and battery was again tried before Justice Coons Friday morning. Hamm was arrested recently on city and state warrants sworn out by John German. The men had an altercation over a boundary line between their properties.

The case was tried before Justice Coons last week and the jury failed to agree. Yesterday a jury heard both cases by consent. The jury which was composed of Thomas Arnstrong, George Devesee, J. R. Roberts, L. Goheen, W. T. Flynn and W. T. Thompson after hearing the evidence returned a verdict of guilty, fixing the fine in the case at $5 and costs and in th state case at $3 and costs.

A treaty with Great Britain providing for protection of migratory birds on both sides of the Canadian border was ratified.

Death claimed 4 members of the Congress during the session. Senators Shively of Indiana and Burleigh of Maine, and Representatives Brown and Moss, both of West Virginia. Representative Witherspoon of Mississippi, died just before the session began.

HARVARD STARTS GRIDIRON PRACTICE

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 7.—Varsity football practice started at Harvard today. This is the earliest start the Crimson gridiron clan has ever made. The early date was decided upon by Field Coach Leary in view of the fact that the Harvard schedule for the coming season is one of the heaviest in many years. There is also the necessity of filling many positions on the team, owing to the withdrawal of so many of the prominent stars of last year's eleven.

BANK TO DOUBLE CAPITAL
New York, Sept. 7.—At a special meeting called for today the stockholders of the Chase National Bank are to indorse the proposal of the directors to increase the capitalization from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000 and to slice a large melon in dividends. The bank is now the third largest and richest banking institution in the metropolis.

I suffered severely for a great many years with piles, both bleeding and protruding, so that at times, was not able to work. Had been operated upon twice and they soon returned worse than ever. I took Dr.
Carson's treatment some time ago and can say that I feel like another man in every respect and am thoroly cured of my trouble and will gladly answer any inquiries.

For Congressman at Large

Stephen H. Cummins

SPRINGFIELD, ILL.

A Man Who Has Helped Many Republicans to Success Now Seeks Nomination for Congressman-at-Large—A Successful Lawyer and Noted Speaker.

Stephen H. Cummins, candidate for Congressman-at-Large, is Illinois' latest offering, and those who know Mr. Cummins are certain of his qualifications.

STEPHEN H. CUMMINS

Mr. Cummins was a candidate two years ago, but was defeated by a narrow margin, his total of votes surprising the "old line politicians."
His ability as a campaign orator has helped the Republican party to success in many campaigns and was one of the staunch supporters of Senator Sherman.

When the clouds began to gather
he did not desert the Republican party, but stood firm and voted for President Taft. On account of his loyalty to the party he deserves the support of every true Republican.

A son of a Mexican soldier, he is a self-made man, has been in turn,
a farmer's boy, a school teacher, newspaper reporter, cashier of a bank, assistant Attorney-General, a successful lawyer, and a loyal Republican from boyhood. He has been intimately acquainted with every governor and United States senator since the days of John A. Logan who by the way complimented Mr.
Cummins for his part in the election of General Logan to the United States senate in his memorable contest in 1885.

Endorses full suffrage for women,
and favors the Budget System of Appropriations, the abolishment of the
"Pork Barrel," a Protective Tariff, Preparedness and the "Rural System of Credits" to aid the farmers.

His wide acquaintance and experience with public men and questions will make him an influential member of congress.

Mr. Cummins owns and operates two farms in Sangamon county and takes pride in his knowledge of the farmers' problems.

NEW LUBRICANT RESISTS HEAT PREVENTS RAPID SEDIMENTATION

Ordinary oil breaks down under the terrific heat of an automobile engine. Within a few hours, black sediment is formed which partially clogs-out the remaining liquid from the friction points where lubrication is most vital. Such under-supply of oil causes friction between the metal surfaces, intense heat, loss of power and expensive repairs.

The new lubricant that resists heat prevents rapid sedimentation, insures generous lubrication and, except where mechanical faults exist, prevents carbon.

Relative Oil Destruction
The contents of the bottles shown, illustrate the relative durability of ordinary oil and of Vedol, the new lubricant that resists heat. Vedol deposits only a small fraction as much sediment as ordinary oils.

There is a fundamental difference between ordinary oils and Vedol. Ordinary oils are unstable and therefore unserviceable because of non-heat-resisting chemical structure.

Special processes of manufacture developed by this company and the use of Pennsylvania paraffine-base crude oil give Vedol, the new lubricant, its unusual chemical structure, and its remarkable heat-resisting ability.

Make this test
Clean out the crank case. Fill with kerosene. Run the motor about thirty seconds under its own power; then draw out all kerosene and refill with Vedol.

Now make a test run over a familiar road—steep hills and along straight, level stretches.
Keep a record of oil and gasoline mileage.
You will find that your motor has altogether new pickup and hill climbing ability. Vedol enables you to get the maximum mechanical efficiency from your car and to reduce your expenses.
Get a five-gallon can of Vedol,
and make this convincing road test.

BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY MOVES TO TUNE OF SMART ACTIVITY

With Railway Strike Out of the Way Business Interests Breathe More Freely.

New York, Sept. 8.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

"With the railway strike out of the way, business interests breathe more freely, the concern and feverish short buying incident to the embargoes of last week have been superseded by optimism and business as well as industry moves along to the tune of smart activity. Confidence in the future is marked by animated buying for fall and winter delivery. Prices on the whole continue high and even in sections possibly most afflicted by reduced yields of wheat, extraordinary quotations with good yields of other crops cause trade to tend to work upward on the theory that incomes will be sufficient to keep things moving.

HEAVY DAMAGE TO CEREAL CROPS

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE'S MONTHLY FORECAST

Wheat Loss 9,000,000 Bushels Less Than Necessary for Domestic Use—160,000,000 Bushels From Last Year's Bumper Crop Will Make Up Deficiency—Harvest Smallest in Twenty Two Years.

Washington, Sept. 8.—Heavy damage to the country's cereal crops during August caused a loss of many millions of bushels in prospective production, cutting down the outlook for wheat to below the amount required for home consumption. The department of agriculture's monthly forecast, issued today, estimates the wheat crop at 611,000,000 bushels, for 9,000,000 bushels less than is calculated to be necessary for domestic use. A carry over of approximately 160,000,000 bushels of old wheat from last year's record-breaking crop, however, will make up the deficiency and leave something like 100,000,000 bushels to supply the heavy demands of foreign nations for American wheat. Spring wheat parched by hot and dry weather, showed a loss of 43,000,000 bushels since the August forecast on production, while corn estimates were 67,000,000 bushels smaller than forecast a month ago.

A preliminary estimate of the winter wheat crop places the production at 455,000,000 bushels and that of spring wheat at 156,000,000. The prospective spring wheat crop is the smallest in 22 years and 200,000,000 bushels less than harvested last year. The total wheat crop is placed at 611,000,000 which is 400,000,000 bushels less than last year's record breaking crop of 1,012,000,000 bushels. The combined winter and spring wheat crop is the smallest since 1909 and the acre yield the lowest in twenty three years. The heavy loss in prospective production of corn was due to drought. In many sections particularly in Kansas and Oklahoma many fields of corn were cut for ensilage or fodder. The total crop is forecast at 2,710,000 bushels, which is 22,000,000 bushels smaller than the average for the last five years.

An unusually short output of white potatoes for winter supply is forecast. Production of 318,000,000 bushels is indicated. That is 46,000,000 bushels less than forecast a month ago and the smallest crop since 1911.

Other losses from the production estimates made a month ago are: Oats, 43,000,000 bushels. Barley, 11,000,000 bushels. Buckwheat, 1,300,000. Rice, 1,400,000 bushels. Cotton, 1,100,000 bales. Apples, 3,900,000 barrels. Peaches, 3,400,000 bushels.

While cereals all suffered serious damage during the month, hay and tobacco prospered and the harvest of those two crops and also of rice, will be record breaking. There was an increase of 27,000,000 pounds in the indicated production of tobacco, making a crop of 1,224,000,000 pounds, and exceeding the former record crop of 1910 by 121,000,000 pounds.

Hay production is forecast at 86,200,000 tons, which is 1,600,000 tons more than the forecast a month ago, and 1,000,000 tons more than last year's record crop.

Rice which declined 1,400,000 bushels from month ago, promises a crop of 32,800,000 bushels which would be almost 3,000,000 bushels more than the record crop harvested last year.

Extent of the heavy damage to the corn crop because of the dry and hot weather in some parts of the corn-growing belt was disclosed today in the September crop report of the Department of Agriculture. In Oklahoma and Kansas much of the crop has been cut for ensilage and fodder. Reduction of the corn crop in northwestern Arkansas, southwestern Missouri and other States has been caused by unfavorable weather. Much of the principal corn area of the country has failed to receive sufficient rainfall at the most critical periods of its growth. Frost caused a slight damage in extreme northern Minnesota.

In North Dakota corn will be mostly out of danger from frosts by September 12 and in some localities of South Dakota it already is beyond danger of frost damage, but in other parts of that state four or five days are yet needed. The earliest corn is well denting in Iowa and is now safe from frost but 50 per cent of that State's crop will need until September 28. The first killing frost in Iowa averages September 25 in the northwest to October 5 in the extreme southeast. Corn is ripening in the southern states and is being harvested in Georgia and Oklahoma.

Harvesting of spring wheat, oats and barley continues along the northern border of the country, as well as the Rocky Mountain States. Threshing is well under way under favorable conditions in the central and well into the northern districts. In Oregon spring wheat yields are better than was expected, but the grain is somewhat shriveled in Montana.

Cotton picking and ginning are active in all Southern cotton states, even as far west as south western Arizona.

Tobacco harvest and curing are becoming general in the states where the crop is grown. This year's production establishes a record.

Harvesting, drying and shipping of fruits is active in Pacific coast states, and canneries are running full force.

Forecasts of production, which may be larger or smaller than indicated, as conditions affecting the crops are better or worse, follow: (Stated in millions, i. e., 000,000 omitted.)

Crop	Sep. Forecast	Aug. Forecast
Winter wheat	455	455
Spring wheat	156	156
All wheat	611	611

When Vacation Is Over and You Are Back Home Again, Or A Few Electric Thoughts for Coming Cooler Days.

WHEN THE VACATION IS OVER and you are back again, you realize after all that home is the place where you find rest and comfort. You begin to think how many comforts and luxuries of modern homes are contributed by the tireless servant electricity.

THE FAVORITE READING LAMP by your easy chair, the bedside light that you turn out with a pull of the chain as you read yourself to sleep, the turning down night lights that burn dimly in the hall and bathroom, these are touches of comfort that you grow to depend upon.

THE ELECTRIC HEAT PAD for aches and pains, the baby's bottle warmer, are luxuries that may be sorely missed at the summer place. And the electric table appliances.

THE ELECTRIC TOASTER, coffee percolator and chafing dish provide those dainty tricks of table cookery that have come to mean so much to the efficient housewife.

THE ELECTRIC SUCTION SWEEPER, the washing machine and general utility motor—these have gone far to relieve the heavy work and bring solid comfort into the home.

As one vacationist remarked:

"We go away in vacation time for a change of air and scene, but we come home for the rest and solid comfort that we love the best."

How is YOUR HOME EQUIPPED? Have YOU begun putting in some of the COMFORT-GIVING, LABOR-SAVING, REALLE ECONOMIC ELECTRIC DEVICES? Have YOU given a thought to what you and your family might be enjoying, with practically no increase in prices? Have YOU any real idea of the many contrivances for "doing it electrically" that may be had now, and so reasonably, too? Why not drop in and let us show you these things, get the prices and find out how inexpensively they can be operated—you will be delighted to think that you did. Ask particularly to see the line of ELECTRIC BREAKFAST TABLE APPLIANCES.

If you cannot call at our office, but will let us know the particular appliances you are interested in, our Mr. McLaren will be glad to take them to your home. Either phone 580.

MORGAN

Miss Edna Hutches left Thursday morning for Normal to attend institute before commencing her school near that place which she will teach this year.

Misses Effie and Helene Markham and brother, Tom and Miss Doris Anderson called on relatives here Sunday afternoon.

Elder L. Hadaway and family of Chapin were callers at the home of Chas. E. Williams Sunday afternoon.

John Taylor commenced his term of school at Hazel Dell Monday morning.

Chas. E. Williams has been on the sick list owing to an accident which happened to him last Wednesday evening in Chapin. He had gone from the fish fry grounds at the Christian church and was crossing the street in front of Barnham's livery barn to get his horse when some one driving one horse to a buggy at a more rapid rate than is lawful in Chapin ran into him and knocked him to the ground with considerable force, bruising him about the hips and back. He was carried from the road by those near when the accident occurred and in a little while was able to go to his home. He suffered some pain and a severe nervous shock but is now convalescing in a satisfactory manner and is thankful the accident was no worse. The driver of the buggy showed his stripe by putting whip to his horse and driving on without offering assistance.

Harry Hutches and family spent most of last week here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Hutches. Harley has rented and furnished a home on Brown street and will soon become a permanent resident of Jacksonville.

GO EAST.

The Misses Louise T. and Jane Young of West State street, left Friday evening for their duties as teachers in the East.

Miss Louise goes to resume her place as assistant principal of the Maine School for the Deaf at Portland, Me.

Miss Jane goes to Newark, N. J., to teach the deaf in the public schools of that city, where seven other teachers are employed in the same department.

Miss Jane Young had been notified that her services would not be required until October, owing to the infantile paralysis epidemic, but this week she received directions to be at her place next Monday, when, in common with other instructors she is to attend lectures.

This course is similar to that in New York City, as shown by the following telegram:

"Thousands of men and women teachers in schools in New York had to report for duty and go to work today even though there is no school, on account of the infantile paralysis epidemic. The time of the teachers will be taken up by conferences and lectures on several new laws and systems of teaching that go into effect in New York schools this year. Many of the teachers have an indefinite idea of their new duties."

MONDAY IS OPENING DAY FOR JACKSONVILLE SCHOOLS

Board of Health Suggests Delay of One Week for Jefferson Building Only—Fred S. Barrows to Join High School Faculty—Teachers Will Meet Today.

To public schools of Jacksonville with the exception of the Jefferson building in the first ward, will open Monday in accordance with the announcement originally made by Supt. Perrin. This order is in accordance with the instructions received from the state board of health. After examination of all the circumstances connected with the case of infantile paralysis found here recently, the board has said that it will be perfectly safe for the schools to open on time with the exception of the Jefferson, as already mentioned. This school is to be opened one week later. The order from the board also affects the kindergarten, which is not to open until October.

New Faculty Members.

As previously announced Supt. Perrin will have a general meeting of teachers Saturday morning at 10 o'clock when plans for the year will be discussed by the superintendent. The announcement was made Friday by Supt. Perrin of the appointment of Fred S. Barrows of Wisconsin to become head of the commercial department of the high school, filling the vacancy caused by the resignation of W. C. Springgate. Mr. Barrow will also have charge of some work in manual training and as he has had experience in orchestra and band work, may have something to do with the musical organization of the high school. Mr. Barrows was educated at Stephens Point state normal school and subsequently was a student at the University of Wisconsin. He is a man thirty nine years of age with a considerable experience in teaching. He is a lieutenant in a Wisconsin company which has just returned from service at the Mexican border, and it was his return that made it possible for him to accept the position offered him in the Jacksonville high school.

Supt. Perrin has arranged with the teachers to furnish all pupils in their rooms with checked slips showing the books and supplies which will be necessary. This plan will avoid any possible errors.

R. C. Austin of Joliet was in the city Friday in the interest of Richard J. Barr, candidate for Attorney General on the Republican ticket.

The members began to gather at the Elks home early in the afternoon and from 2:30 until nearly 5 o'clock automobiles were leaving loaded with members. There was plenty of chicken and fish for everybody and a few speeches were made and the members indulged in singing songs and playing ball. The Elks returned to the city about 7:30 o'clock.

SOME FARM THEMES.

Steer Feeding and Profits
Two lots of cattle in the recent 150-day feeding test at Purdue University were fed both hay and silage roughage. Lot 5 was fed a ration consisting of shelled corn, cottonseed meal, corn silage and clover hay, and Lot 7 a ration of shelled corn, cottonseed meal, corn silage and alfalfa hay.

Both lots were valued at $6.99 per cwt., at the beginning of the trial. The total gain per steer for lot 4 was 302.6 pounds and a daily gain of 2.02 pounds, while Lot 7 had a total gain of 252.4 pounds and an average daily gain of 2.35 pounds. The average daily feed for lot 4 consisted of 9.81 pounds shelled corn, 2.45 pounds of cottonseed meal, 28.64 pounds of corn silage and 2.04 pounds clover hay, while lot 7 received 9.57 pounds of shelled corn, 2.53 pounds cottonseed meal, 30.81 pounds corn silage and 1.95 pounds alfalfa hay.

The cost per cwt. gain for lot 4 was $11.39 against $9.93 for lot 7, a difference of $1.46 in favor of the latter lot. The necessary selling price, to break even, for lot 4 was $8.95 while for $9.20 on the Chicago markets as against $9.25 for the latter lot.

The profit per steer, not including pork, for lot 4 was $13.61 as against $17.61 for lot 7. This shows a profit per steer of $4 in favor of the lot that received shelled corn, cottonseed meal, corn silage and alfalfa hay as a fattening ration.

Lot 7 made the best and the cheapest gains of any of the lots during the entire feeding trial. They made consistent gains and were in fine condition at the end of the trial as is shown by the price secured on the Chicago market. The cheap gains secured were a great factor when the profit per steer was determined.

CHARLES JONES KILLED SELF AT BUSINESS OFFICE IN WAVERLY

Left Note of Farewell to Family and Then Sent Bullet into Brain—Financial Worry Caused Act.

"To my family, 'Goodbye and God Bless You.'"
After writing these words Charles Jones, coal and ice dealer of Waverly shot himself thru the right temple causing instant death. The deed was committed in Mr. Jones' coal office.

While the testimony of several witnesses was taken that of Charles Edgemon who was in the employ of Mr. Jones as an ice hauler was the only evidence that had any import. Edgemon had come back to the office from a trip and opened the door of the office and started in. He saw the suicide preparing to fire the shot. Witness said he backed out of the office and went to the railroad station and told several men sitting there that Mr. Jones was going to take his life. When he got back to the office in company with the men the fatal shot had been fired.

Financial Difficulties the Cause
Mrs. Charley Jones, wife of the dead man, in her testimony said that it was probable that financial difficulties had caused her husband to take his life. Witness said he had slept well the night before and seemed as usual at breakfast. She identified the revolver as one that was kept in the house and said it had been laid away all summer.

The testimony of R. C. Henderson, Ezra Garman, W. J. Duncan and D. W. H. Allyn was heard. None of the men knew anything about the suicide except that they had seen the body after the deed was committed. Dr. Allyn told of being called and examining the body. He testified that the shot evidently had been fired at close range. Dr. Allyn said he had talked to deceased on Thursday and that there had been several disturbances in his health.

Coroner Wright was notified of the death and went to Waverly Friday afternoon and empanelled a jury composed of the following: E. Etter, foreman, O. B. Turner, Joseph Deatherage, J. L. Adcock, R. G. Breeding and J. R. Reynolds, clerk.

Coroner's Verdict
After hearing the evidence the jury returned the following verdict:

"We the jury sworn to inquire of the death of Charles E. Jones on oath do find he came to his death by a gun shot wound inflicted by himself while brooding over his financial and business affairs at his office in Waverly, Ill., on September 8, 1916, at about 11:15 o'clock a. m."

Deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Jones of Waverly and had been a resident of that city for many years. He was engaged in the coal and ice business and had recently purchased the interest of his partner, O. K. Camm and also had purchased the transfer business of B. M. Wright. He was 56 years of age at the time of death. His widow and three children, Mrs. Glenn Harney, Karl and Clyde Jones all of Waverly survive. His parents also survive.

EARLY WAVERLY RESIDENT RETURNS FOR VISIT.

Hon. George P. Jester Born in this County Now Influential Citizen of Texas.

Hon. and Mrs. George P. Jester of Corsicana, Tex., and granddaughter, Miss Alice Johnson of Ft. Worth, have been visitors in Waverly this week. Mr. Jester was born in Waverly and that town was his home until twelve years of age. The following facts about Mr. Jester, who has been very prominent in his home state of Texas, are taken from the Waverly Journal:

"Aside from a few hours spent here about twenty years ago it was Mr. Jester's first visit to Waverly since leaving here in 1858. It was in the year of the death of Mr. Jester's father, Levi Jester, that the widow and six children sold their small holdings and left with a team and wagon driving most of the distance (a part of the trip being made by boat on the Mississippi) to Corsicana where the new home was established.

"Mr. Jester grew to manhood at Corsicana and has since made his home there. He has prospered in the state of his adoption, having been a bank president for the past quarter of a century and having large stock and farming interests. He served in both the house of representatives and the state senate and served four years as lieutenant governor, several months of which time he was acting governor.

"Mr. Jester made his visit to Waverly that he might again place flowers on his father's grave in East cemetery, to see the old home and meet the people most of whom have grown to mature years since he left here.

"Mr. Jester made two short talks to the people of Waverly during his brief visit. He attended the Waverly Methodist Sunday school when a boy and last Sunday evening spoke to the congregation of the First M. E. church concerning the church as he knew it in the fifties. He also responded to a call at the chicken fry Tuesday afternoon and delighted a large number of hearers that gathered around the pagoda in the park."

AN OLD TIME CEMETERY
In the early days of the county several families and neighborhoods unfortunately started small cemeteries which in time became neglected and finally obliterated and in some cases the bodies there buried were never removed. Several of these are known, or rather the spots they once occupied are known. The bodies have pretty much all been removed from the old college burying ground on Lincoln Avenue and several others have partly given up their dead. The Reid family had such a place at the southwest corner of Church and Walnut streets though a descendant of the family informs the Journal that either all the bodies, or all but one, were taken away and given burial in a regular resting place of the dead.

CHILD DIED FRIDAY FROM INFANTILE PARALYSIS

Frances Chuse Succumbed to Disease Epidemic in the East—All Disinfection Rules Followed.

Frances Chuse, the 20 months old child which developed a case of infantile paralysis a few days ago shortly after its arrival from Chicago died at the residence of Earl Butcher, 224 North East street Friday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock.

The child came here last week for a visit and developed the disease. Its condition was critical from the first but Thursday the attending physician had hopes that it might recover. However, a turn for the worse came Friday morning and the child had a spasm and continued to sink until death came.

Immediately after death the residence was fumigated by Dr. A. M. King, the health warden assisted by Dr. J. M. Wolfe who had charge of the case. The body will be wrapped in antiseptic materials in accordance with the state law and sent to Chicago where the funeral will be held and burial made.

The child is survived by the father, Frank Chuse, the mother having died about a year ago. The grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ryan, also survive, and there are a number of uncles and aunts living in Chicago.

For a day or two there has appeared on the streets of the city a Studebaker automobile which has excited some little curiosity. Thompson of Cleveland, Oklahoma, who, with his wife and two daughters, has been making a tour of Canada and is now on his way home. Being sensibly pleased with our beautiful city the tourists lingered here for a time and yesterday made a trip into the country to see some of the wealth of the county.

JAMES HEMBROUGH MADE GOOD SHOWING WITH CATTLE

Well Known Local Feeder Recently Marketed One Hundred Head—Profit Good Altho Not Equal to Former Standard.

James R. Hembrough, who recently marketed his cattle in Chicago, did not make as good a profit as he has in some former years but the results were very satisfactory. Mr. Hembrough sold 104 head of cattle which he purchased in Chicago last March. They weighed at that time about 950 lbs. and the average weight in Chicago recently was 1,310 lbs. and the price $10 per hundred. One reason for the statement that the cattle did not make as much as in former years is because of the recollection that Mr. Hembrough had the good fortune one year to sell at the top price of $9.50 the cattle which he had bought a few months earlier at $5.75. With such a good feeder as Mr. Hembrough it is easy to figure how much those particular cattle must have made for him.

This year, Mr. Hembrough said yesterday, the cattle were not just the kind he likes to buy but when he was in the market feeders were scarce and he practically had no choice. The cattle purchased were all from the west, branded and therefore not of just the best quality. After they were shipped to his farm seven miles southwest of Jacksonville they were turned on the stalks and roughed it for a month. April 15 they went on the pasture and the grass was only in fair condition. Mr. Hembrough immediately began giving them corn and oil meal and in a short time each steer was receiving an average of one-third of a bushel of corn and two lbs. of oil meal per day. Every few days the corn was weighed, so that an accurate line was kept on the amount being fed. The tent and was somewhat overcrowded as the cattle were followed by 112 head of hogs. There is good shade in the pasture and plenty of water from a tile fed pond. For years Mr. Hembrough has had water in this pond for his cattle without any pumping, and those feeders who are compelled from circumstances to have hand pumping done for their cattle will appreciate what a saving in time and trouble is effected by having a supply of water constantly available.

Asked if he had a silo on his farm, Mr. Hembrough said he was thoroughly convinced that there is no advantage in silage for fattening cattle, but where the purpose is to put on fat rapidly he does not believe that anything will take the place of corn supplemented with oil meal. The hogs weighed about 70 lbs. when they went with the cattle and now their average weight is 200 lbs. They were more of these hogs than really should have been with the cattle to get best results and Mr. Hembrough says that 75 would have been about the proper number. These hogs are of late September growth. They were roughed thru the winter, having practically no corn, and were given oats instead. Mr. Hembrough has found that oats are excellent feed for sows with pigs and for young pigs after weaning time. A year ago he had a great many sheep oats damaged by the rain and he found that they made excellent feed for his hogs and he got more money out of the oats in this way than would have been possible in any other.

The weights of the steers were taken from time to time during the feeding and one of the animals put on an average of 6 lbs. a day the first month, and the average thru the 90-day feeding period was 4 1-2 lbs. a day. Mr. Hembrough plans to sell the hogs, which now weigh 200 lbs., sometime during this month as the market conditions are so favorable. He has other hogs on the place to the total number of 200 but has no cattle. He fears the uncertainty of the cattle market and will probably not buy any more cattle until late in the winter. In doing so he will be following a general rule, as it is not often that cattle are found in any large number on his farm during the summer time. Mr. Hembrough does not boast of his work but an investigation of his record year after year shows that cattle feeding is a profitable industry if followed with intelligent care.
